THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15. Letter from San Francisco.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPON ... NT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18-22, 1863. I have taken this peculiar and almost Russian way of dating my letter, as Messrs. C. W. Brooks & Co. informed me this morning, that it might be three or four days before this vessel got off, owing to the difficulty in procuring a crew. Sailors are very scarce here at present, and as Billy Birch of the Minstrels says, "How is this?" Well how is it? I repeat. But it's so. This vessel carries principally Wheat and Flour to China, and about 200 tons assected merchandise to the Sandwich Islands. Alexandre Phillippeus, a Russian officer of note, is passenger by the Daring. He goes to Shanghae to take charge of some responsible command for the Russian Government. Messrs. C. W. Brooks & Co. are loading the clipper ship Tanjore to follow the Daring. She will have 100 to 150 tons of freight for Honolulu.

Shipping and Market Report. This being the most important item for many of your readers, I give you the market as I have been able to get hold of it. The bulk of the island business is done by Messrs. McRuer & Merrill and Chas. W. Brooks & Co., and they undoubtedly keep their correspondents posted, but the quotations given by me are from actual sales. COFFEE-The Casar, 81 days from Rio, for this port, with a full cargo of Coffee to James Patrick & Co., put into Valparaiso July 27th jo repair, having suffered "much damage." She will be obliged to discharge, as well as to dispose of part of her cargo, and will doubtless be detained all 1st September, and can scarcely be looked for here much before December 1st. This is unfortunate for the trade, as the stock of Rio is very low, none held by importers, thus leaving us bare of all kinds; fine Coffees are now held at advanced rates. Sales 27c. @ 29c.

At auction, McRuer & Merrill seld largely of Hawaiian Sugars and Syrups. Prices con the whole, were low and unsatisfactory to the imderters. Sugar. - 2500 kegs Sandwich Lirands, choice, $10 80, down to 7c. for dark-at private sale, No. 1

COAL-Sydney coal to arrive $16; Anthracite $30. Since the arrival of the recent fleet from the Atlantic, trade has somewhat revived, with considerable inquiry for desirable goods to complete assortments, which, in the main, are becoming very much reduced, both in the city as well as in the country. In fact, it is remarked by persons well informed that the stock of goods-such as Flour, Greceries, Provisions, etc.-in the mountain towns, particularly in the southern part of the State, and especially in the placer mining districts, is lighter now than for years past. Still, there is at present no inducement held out to traders to purchase for the fall or winter trade, until the question is fully settled in regard to the permanency or rather the return of their inhabitants. For now whole towns and villages appear to be deserted by the rush of men and miners to the Reese river and other new mining districts. We may therefore look for a decided advance shortly. The George Washington arrived on the 17th with coal from N. S. W. The Arctic arrived in Boston, August 4th. I am "out and injured" by the pie rates $6 00, as my paternal relative having the fear of Semmes, Maffitt & Co. before his eyes, paid that amount to have the war risk underwritten on a lot of coffee and sugar, which I, his dutiful filius, sent him by said vessel. Montevideo-arrived-June 17-Schr Kate Sargeant, West-Beston Nov. 12, for Honolulu, was at Falkland Is., April 2:

Kate is having a hard time of it.

Bordeaux—sailed—July 27—Lancastria, Edmondson, for Honolulu. Aug. 7, Boston, schooner Onomea, for Honolulu. The ship Sam'l Robertson was condemned at Pernambuco, July 9, for want of $13,000, required for repairs to proceed on her voyage.

Messrs. C. W. Brooks & Co. inform me, that they have advices of the arrival of the Francisco at Petropauloski, and was discharging cargo.

The Tahiti Mail Packet "Surprise." On the 16th the French brigantine Surprise arrived at this port from Tahiti. She is the first of the regular postal packets sent under the mail contract with the Tahitian Government. The Surprise was formerly the Cora, which, sailing under Peruvian colors, kidnapping Kanakas in the South Pacific, was taken by the natives of the Island of Ruppa and delivered to the French authorities at Tahiti. Evidence of her character as a slaver being found, her captain, for fear of personal consequences, secretly left Tahiti during the night. The Cora was condemned by the authorities at Tahiti and sold. After being re-naturalized, she has brought the first special mail under contract to this port.

A New Cod-Fishery. The brig Timandra, Turner, arrived on the 17th, 28 days out from Petropauloski. She brings 15 tons of genuine cod-fish, which were caught and cured by the crew of the brig. These fish are reported to be equal in quality to the best caught on the Atlantic coast. The fishery on the Asiatic coast has been known to whalemen for many years, but the lot which has now arrived is believed to be the first ever received at this port, but it is an old story at Honolulu.

The Rebel Pirates come to Grief. I am a "little even" on my old shipmate Mailitt, (23 years ago, however, when he was a gentleman,) for a telegram, dated New York, Sept. 16, says : The Florida is still in port at Brest, and to-day it is stated in the journals that she is going to be seized by owners of certain French vessels which had been burned by her; and that a British man-of-war was also lying in wait for her, for burning a British vessel. advance, in view of the certainty that peace will be maintained in Europe. Also that the claim of rebel

The funds and commerce generally had a great piracy, on the ocean, to be treated as legalized privateering, is soon to be tested in the French Courts. A preliminary decision has already been rendered, whereby British owners in London of the silver stolen by the pirate Maffitt from the ship B. F. Hoxie, restrain the disposition of this property by Marcoura & Co., who have advanced upon it about $40,000. This advance being on stolen property, they may not only lose their advance money, but may be impounded for damages to the rightful owners. The President of the Civil Tribunal, at Paris, has issued an order for the sale of the silver, and directed the proceeds to be invested in Treasury bonds, at six months, till the question of ownership is decided. In regard to the Florida at Brest, the same correspondent states that the engines of tie Florida are of English manufacture. Maffitt was obliged to stop the French workmen could not repair his English engines, and he would have to wait till he could get English workmen from England. All this caused delay, which has put Maffitt into a towering rage, for now his vessel will probably suffer the fate of the Sumfer at Gibraltar. Maffitt says that but for the mistake of Lieut. Reed, who cut out the Caleb Cushing at Portland, it was in his programme at one time to enter the port of New York or Boston and burn the place. When the Florida first came into the port of Brest, Mr. Dayton protested formally against her admission, but not probably with the expectation of having her expelled, for, so far, the French have faithfully executed their neutrality proclamation in all other respects, and it was to be expected she would also do so in this case. But the profest embraced incidental points which might arise, and prevented an extension of favors. The Moniteur of the 4th September publishes an official note on the subject, which declares that the Florida will be only allowed to repair such damages as regards her navigation, but no supplies of war will be

A Confederate dollar is now worth in Dixie just nine and three quarter cents. Out of the Confederacy it is perfectly worthless. Yesterday in New York, Money casy. Sterling firmer, 1484; Gold firm, 138 @ 140; Government securities quiet, without material change. The Confederate Loan, notwithstanding the favorable start it took in Europe, by skilful financiering so as to command a premium, the last quotation from London says, the bombardment of Charleston further depressed the Confederate lean, which was nominally quoted at 25 @ 30 discount. Of this loan, the head of the house of Rothschild is reported to have said, that no Jewish house of any character or wealth has touched nor will they touch it. This, said Rothschild, is because the Hebrews of Europe do not believe in the loan nor the Bully for R. He was right, for the Confederate debt divided equally among the Southern States, amounts to $163 to each person.

Foreign Shipping in the Harbor. The high rate of insurance charged on account of the ravages of the rebel steamers Alabams, Florida, etc., has to a great extent driven American vessels out of service for long foreign voyages, and as a consequence vessels of other nations are doing the carry ing trade. San Francisco forms no exception to the general rule, and there are to-day more foreign flags displayed by shipping in the harbor than at any previous time. Among the foreign shipping now here are vessels belonging to Prussia, Denmark, Hamburg, Bremen, Lubeck, Russia, Great Britain, France, Sardinia and Columbia. The Lubeck bark Alma, recently at hand from Liverpool, is the second vessel bearing the flag of that nationality that ever entered this harbor. She was stopped by the Florida in the Atlantic, and six passengers put aboard, whom they agreed to pay passage for. The papers were all made out and signed, but when the bold rovers got on board they mizzled without saying

Where the Money comes from for Uncle Abe. You saw when you was here, the careless way the Internal Revenue stamps flew about and stuck occasionally. I have demolished myself in the last month some $500 worth. But here is a

A Thousand Dollar Stamp Tax. The conveyance of the New Almaden mine to the Onicksilver Company, involving some $1,750,000 of money, required, $1,000 worth of revenue stamps to make it perfect. Probably this is the largest stamp tax yet required in any one transaction. The law calls for $1,000 of stamps to convey $500,000 worth of property, and it prohibits a demand for over $1,000 however large the property may be.

Where some of the Money goes to, when Abe Says a New York paper: "Never since a stock exchange was first established in New York has there been so much gambling, and profitable gambling, in stocks, as within the past year. Half a dozen men are pointed out in William street and Exchange Place who have realized $1,000,000 apiece, several scores who have netted from $25,000 to $50,000. Brokers who used to set down their business as worth $10,000 a year are now making that every quarter. Operators who thought $10,000 a good year's work, now complain if they don't receive as much every

'The boys on Wall Street have the advantage of us here on Montgomery Street, for the fluctuations are more rapid, and the Bulls and Bears have a larger field to work in. I have seen some very pretty little operations however in San Francisco. Let me quote one. The "Daney" stock yesterday at the First Board sold for $100 per share. A gentleman not 60 days ago, sold his homestead for $8,000, bought 20 feet of this stock for $500 per foot, hypothecating his stock for the remaining $2,000. Some of your experts, who are quick at figures, can reckon where that gentleman stands now. But this is the reverse of the picture. Rapid accumulation can be told per

A Church Enterprise by an Old Friend. The Rev. J. D. Strong, (Presbyterian,) who for the past 18 months has been preaching to the people of the Twelfth District, " without money and without price," was presented by the people in the Presidio vicinity with a purse containing $268-the net proceeds of a donation party given at the Spring Valley School-house on the evening of the 11th. Mr. Strong's efforts in his field of labor have resulted in the proposed building of a neat and substantial church edifice at the corner of Broadway and Larkin streets-the greater part of the money (say, some $3,000) having already been subscribed. A certificate of incorporation has been filed and J. W. Cherry, E. R. Waterman, F. Leppien, J. M. Wood, S. H. Williams, George L. Kenny and W. B. Gould have Imports to Victoria, V. I. from Honolulu. The value of imports to Victoria from Honolulu were as published there for the month of August, $24,852, and for the half year contrasted with the six months immediately preceding were $48,298; for six months ending June 30, 1863 against $32,279; for six months ending December 31, 1862, showing a gain of $16,019, or 50 per cent. There is a little " silver lining" to your "dark cloud" for you.

Louis Napoleon and Mexico.

This aerobatic monarch, as far as diplomacy is concerned, has turned another summersault. Telegraphic news state that the rumored alliance of the United States with Russia brought about by Cassius M. Clay at St. Petersburg, the movements of the German Confederation brought about by the Austrian Emperor to check mate his evident desire to get the province of the Rhine after the manner and custom of Savoy and Nice, the "cocky" manner of Gertschakoff, (or Got-a cough,) has brought forth a document from H. I. Majesty stating that he has no idea of helping the Poles in their late insurrection &c. &c. Max has declined to take the crown of Mexico, just in time, for Uncle Sam has concluded to send an army of observation of 50,000 men to be stationed at Matamoras. Saligny the French Minister had been poisoned, by whom nobody knows, and somewhere; but found that after striving at Brest, his recovery was considered doubtful. The prisons | 378-19 were filled with prisoners who were arrested in the city of Mexico for treason to the Imperial Government. The boys are getting excited up this way, and the draft would be welcome, if it was only to take a part against the Johnny Crapeaus to the southward. The Monroe Doctrine is not dead, it is only sleeping, it will awaken shortly, like a giant refreshed by its slumbers.

Late Arrivals. The John Jay arrived on the 19th with dates from Shanghae to the 10th July. The cholera was and had been raging fearfully there. You recollect the Pilot boat Danl. Webster, which was at Honolulu, on her way to Shanghae. Capt. Chas. Abbott had died. Palmer was not expected to live when the John Jay left, and Shelly was reported as about to return. By the steamer Golden Age, Captain Whitsides and wife were passengers. He tells me he shall probably go to Honolulu. There are 54 vessels lying in New Bedford ready to be fitted out, but the depredation of the Rebel cruisers have frightened the owners, and the war risk exacted by the Underwriters leaves no margin for profits Miss Martha Cooke was also passenger by the Golden Age.

The Relations of the United States and Japan. The Acting Collector of the Port, W. B. Farwell, This is not the first time that pirates, like infants, | Esq., has received from the American Minister in Japan, the Hon. R. H. Pruyn, a letter which con tains the following information :

It may interest you to learn that the prompt course in resenting the outrage on our flag has resulted most favorably, as the Wyoming, with six guns, destroyed a steamer, barque and brig, mounting over 22 guns, besides engaging six batteries. The accomplishment of so much, with so little means, has astounded the Government and people; and what is strange, the Government is much obliged to

Wreck in the South Pacific---Loss of Two Consuls. In a letter dated Papeete, 18th of July, 1863, received here per Surprise, from Tahiti, is mentioned the following occurrence : "We have heard of the sad loss of a schoonerhaving capsized-with the American Consul (whose name I do not know.) together with Mr. Pritchard, the English Consul and all his family. Not one life was saved. Both Consuls belonging to the Fejees. The accident occurred while the vesse! was going from one island to another." A Stray Bird.

Joe Davis is a brother of Jeff. Joe and Jeff had a plantation in partnership out near Jackson, Miss., and said plantation was well stocked with negroes. These negroes are now nearly all of them under the stars and stripes, some of them as cooks and servants for Federal officers. Joe is living upon his plantation, and scarcely enough of his niggers are faithful to him to carry home his subsistence, which he is obliged to draw from the commissariat of the Union!

Another Southerner of a different Stripe. Here is the conclusion of Gen. A. J. Hamilton's letter to the President. Hamilton is a Texan.

" By your just Proclamation you gave the highest earthly sanction to the wise and noble policy of the enfranchisement of the black man, and by his enrollment in your armies for the defence of the country, you have confirmed it to the benefit of the nation. You will be urged to revoke that act. God forbid that you should listen to such advisers and to rob yourselves of the gratitude and admiration of Drafting. The machinery for the draft is all arranged here. The son of Edward Everett was drafted in Boston, and two sons of Gen. Meade in Philadelphia. Edward paid the $800. Nine artists were drafted in New York, one of whom (Bierstadt) is at present in Estates of Deceased American Citizens in Foreign Ports.

This is the title of a long article in the Bulletin, which is too long for extract entire. It is a case where the Civil Tribunal of Tahiti directs that the Consul of the United States be invited to make restitution of the deposits of money and articles of value belonging to the estates of Daniel Marsh, to the hands of the Bishop for M's heirs, and the editor says "judging from the long previous delay, it might reasonably have been doubted whether the money would ever have reached the children, if the French Government had not taken action in the matter. It is rarely that any notice of these acts, as in this case by official publication in a Government paper, comes before the public; and they will never be rectified except by the attention of the authorities at Washington being called to some glaring case of delay. In the Sandwich Islands, similar instances have occurred where property of deceased persons was long withheld from the heirs by the consuls who on one frivolous pretence or another allowed year after year to pass before paying over money due." Any such occurrence must have happened before Tom D.'s day, for he is too honorable a man to do any such naughty act. Eh, Tommy?

Ancient Wedding. A couple were joined in marriage in this city a few days since whose united ages were 152 years. #### The Capture of Fort Wagner.

The most signal triumph of the Federal army which we have to record, is the capture of Morris Island, Fort Wagner of course included. It is generally conceded that the capture of this important point will prove but preliminary to the fall of Sumter and finally of Charleston itself. The following brief extract from a description of the last day's bombardment (Sept. 6.) from the New York Herald's Morris Island correspondence, as telegraphed to the Bulletin, will give some idea of the terrific nature of the

" In accordance with the order given on a previous day, fire was opened on Wagner from all our batteries, yesterday morning at daylight. The fire was rapid and effective and the range being obtained, we poured into that work projectiles such as never before were brought to bear upon any sand battery. The results were most encouraging. Our heavy rifle projectiles plowed through the parapets of the rebel work and plunged deeply into the covering of the huge bomb-proof, when they exploded and threw high in the air immense quantities of sand. The firing was at short range and very accurate-not one shot out of ten failed to be effective. At times, two or three shells would strike together, and the gleams of fire, volumes of smoke, and jons of sand that shot up quickly and then rolled off in dingy clouds, gave the immense mound covering to the bomb-proof an appearance not unlike a miniature volcano in full eruption. The rebels attempted to make some defense in the early moments of the bombardment, and for a while fired rapidly and spitefully their canister, grape and schrapnell shells, but they could not stand to their guns. The fort gleamed like hell with the fire of exploding shells, and instant death awaited the bold spirits who dared to face our guns. In half an hour the fort became silent. Not a shot was fired from it during the day, and not a iving being showed himself above the parapet or indeed outside of the bomb-proof."

The Richmond Enquirer of the 8th contains the following from Charleston the 7th: " Morris Island was evacuated, and the enemy hold Cummings' Point, in full view of the city. Heavy firing is now going on between the batteries on Sullivan's Island and Fort Moultrie and the Moni-

A New York paper says: "The taking of the Cummings' Point batteries brings General Gilmore's long range Parrot guns one and one eighth miles nearer the City of Charleston than they were when the twelve "Greek Fire" shells were thrown into the

When the new batteries are in position the whole harbor will be commanded by his guns, while Charleston will be within easy shelling distance. The immediate fall of the city is not, however, expected. Believing that the rebel prisoners know quite as well, if not better, how to handle their infernal machines. Gilmore has set the rebel prisoners at work to remove them. Our soldiers and sailors are enthusiastically n favor of this arrangement. A late Charleston Mercury says the rebel casualies in the struggle for the possession of Morris Island were seven hundred killed, wounded and missing.

The bombardment of Fort Moultrie is also continued with vigor. The indefatigable Ironsides and a portion of the Monitor fleet keep hammering away, and leave but little opportunity, night or day, for the enemy to repair damages. It is said that the parapet walls are broken, and the guns dismounted, so that its speedy reduction is anticipated

The capture of Wagner was followed by a boat attack upon Sumter, which proved, however, unsuccessful and somewhat disastrous.
